

Curricular Sequence

One of the PDC activities is the expansion of training opportunities tailored to scientists, physician scientists and clinicians' schedules. This activity will address the challenge of effectively providing training which fits in with clinical activities. PDC is focused in activities that complement and supplement other institutional offerings already available. Each potential enrollee will discuss their research experience and IDPs so that the curricular sequence will be tailor made according to experience and goals.

